EXAMS

The mid-term exam (25%) will be conducted during class time and will cover material from July 2nd to July 18th.

The final exam (10%) will be conducted on the final day of class (August 13th) and will be cumulative in nature. Exams will consist of multiple-choice, short- and long-answer questions. Questions will be drawn from all materials (lectures, video clips, and presentations) presented in class as well as in the textbook. No electronic devices can be used during the exam period.

A valid reason (e.g., medical or family emergency), with documentation, is necessary to allow an exam to be written before or after the scheduled exam date. Provide the instructor as much advance notice as possible if an exam will be missed. If an exam is missed without prior notification, inform the instructor of the reason as soon as possible.

Group Presentation (20%)

The first hour of each class (where there is a presentation) will be devoted to group presentations. To ensure that the first group has adequate time to prepare their presentation, group presentations will not begin until the third fourth class (July 11th). Groups who present early will be graded more leniently than those presenting later to compensate for having less time to prepare (and fewer “models” of what can be done and what “works” for this assignment). Should one or more group members be ill on the date of the presentation, thus compromising the group’s ability to present, arrangements (e.g., rescheduling or other possibilities) will be determined on a case basis via consultation between group members and the instructor. See Blackboard for more details about the group presentation assignment.

Interpersonal Relationships Article Review (15%)

One week following your group presentation, you will be required to submit an article review/critique. The article must be a peer-reviewed empirical article and must be related to the topic of your group presentation (all group members will submit their own article review). It is up to you to ensure that you and your group members select different articles to review for this assignment. An outline will be provided for instruction on the criteria that you will use to evaluate and critique the article. The article review is to be five (5) pages maximum in length (12-point font, double-spaced, APA style) and is due one week following your group presentation. The assignment is worth 10% of the final grade.

Paper (20%)

An 8-10 page (maximum) paper is due Tuesday August 6th at the beginning of class. Late papers will be subject to a 10% penalty per day (including a 10% penalty over weekends). No papers will be accepted more than one week after the due date for any reason.

Details regarding this paper will be provided in class as well as on Blackboard. E-mailed papers are not accepted. Style references for your paper should conform to the Publication Manual of the American Psychological Association (APA). Please use APA 6th Edition.

Attendance (Participation: 10%):

Attendance will not be taken but is strongly encouraged. Participation is an important component of this course as there will be a lot of group discussions and in class-activities.

Grading Scale

A+	96-100%	B+	80-84%	C+	67-71%	D+	54-58%
A	90-95%	B	76-79%	C	63-66%	D	50-53%

A- 85-89% B- 72-75% C- 59-62% F 0-49%

As stated in the University Calendar, it is at the instructor’s discretion to round off either upward or downward to determine a final grade when the average of term work and final examinations is between two letter grades.

To determine final letter grades, final percentage grades will be rounded up or down to the nearest whole percentage (e.g., 89.5% will be rounded up to 90% = A but 89.4% will be rounded down to 89% = A-).

Reappraisal of Grades

A student who feels that a piece of graded term work (e.g., term paper, essay, test) has been unfairly graded, may have the work re-graded as follows. The student shall discuss the work with the instructor within 15 days of being notified about the mark or of the item's return to the class; no reappraisal of term work is permitted after the 15 days. If not satisfied, the student shall immediately take the matter to the Head of the department offering the course, who will arrange for a reassessment of the work within the next 15 days. The reappraisal of term work may cause the grade to be raised, lowered, or to remain the same. If the student is not satisfied with the decision and wishes to appeal, the student shall address a letter of appeal to the Dean of the faculty offering the course within 15 days of the unfavourable decision. In the letter, the student must clearly and fully state the decision being appealed, the grounds for appeal, and the remedies being sought, along with any special circumstances that warrant an appeal of the reappraisal. The student should include as much written documentation as possible.

Plagiarism and Other Academic Misconduct

Intellectual honesty is the cornerstone of the development and acquisition of knowledge and requires that the contribution of others be acknowledged. Consequently, plagiarism or cheating on any assignment is regarded as an extremely serious academic offense. Plagiarism involves submitting or presenting work in a course as if it were the student's own work done expressly for that particular course when, in fact, it is not. Students should examine sections of the University Calendar that present a Statement of Intellectual honesty and definitions and penalties associated with Plagiarism/Cheating/Other Academic Misconduct.

Academic Accommodation

It is the student's responsibility to request academic accommodations. If you are a student with a documented disability who may require academic accommodation and have not registered with the Disability Resource Centre, please contact their office at 403-220-8237. Students who have not registered with the Disability Resource Centre are not eligible for formal academic accommodation. You are also required to discuss your needs with your instructor no later than 14 days after the start of this course.

Absence From A Test/Exam

Makeup tests/exams are NOT an option without an official University medical excuse (see the University Calendar). A completed Physician/Counselor Statement will be required to confirm absence from a test/exam for health reasons; the student will be required to pay any cost associated with this Statement. Students who miss a test/exam have 48 hours to contact the instructor and to schedule a makeup test/exam. Students who do not schedule a makeup test/exam with the instructor within this 48-hour period forfeit the right to a makeup test/exam. At the instructor's discretion, a makeup test/exam may differ significantly (in form and/or content) from a regularly scheduled test/exam. Except in extenuating circumstances (documented by an official University medical excuse), a makeup test/exam must be written within 2 weeks of the missed test/exam.

Travel During Exams

Consistent with University regulations, students are expected to be available to write scheduled exams at any time during the official December and April examination periods. Requests to write a make-up exam because of conflicting travel plans (e.g., flight bookings) will NOT be considered except under exceptional circumstances. Students are advised to wait until the final examination schedule is posted before making any travel arrangements.

Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy (FOIP) Act

The FOIP legislation disallows the practice of having student's retrieve tests and assignments from a public place. Therefore, tests and assignments may be returned to students during class/lab, or during office hours, or via the Department Office (Admin 275), or will be made available only for viewing during exam review sessions scheduled by the Department. Tests and assignments will be shredded after one year. Instructors should take care to not link students' names with their grades, UCIDs, or other FOIP-sensitive information.

Course Credits for Research Participation (Max 2% of final grade)

Students in most psychology courses are eligible to participate in departmentally approved research and earn credits toward their final grades. A maximum of two (2) credits (2%) per course, including this course, may be applied to the student's final grade. Students earn 0.5% (0.5 credits) for each full 30 minutes of participation. The demand for timeslots may exceed the supply in a given term. Thus, students are not guaranteed that there will be enough studies available to them to meet their credit requirements. Students should seek studies early in the term and should frequently check for open timeslots. Students can create an account and participate in Departmentally approved research studies at <http://ucalgary.sona-systems.com>

The last day to participate in studies and to assign or reassign earned credits to courses is August 14th, 2013.

Evacuation Assembly Point

In case of an emergency evacuation during class, students must gather at the designated assembly point nearest to the classroom. The list of assembly points is found at <http://www.ucalgary.ca/emergencyplan/assemblypoints>
Please check this website and note the nearest assembly point for this course.
